YOUTH PASTOR SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATE

The Search committee has met and is currently working on a job description for the position of Youth Pastor. The committee consists of Dennis Ray, Lauri Vaughn - chair, Bill Hartman, Leo Reijnders, and Vicky Turley. Once the job description is complete it will be forwarded to our board for approval to be sent out to advertise the position.

BILL AND RUTH ARE DONE

We will say 'Good-bye' again to Bill and Ruth Clark tomorrow. They are all done with the work that God brought them to us to do. While the kitchen need more important details to be completed, Bill said we don't need them around to see those things through. All the inspections have been done and we have an "okay to occupy" permit which will allow us to use the kitchen, after the flooring has been installed, as the final plumbing and finishing touches are being completed. Rod Turley will manage the rest of the project.

Thanks, again Bill and Ruth. We've enjoyed having you with us. We will especially your unofficial foreman, Laird.

HEALTHY BYTES

Are You Falling for These Food Label Lies? - Part 8

Free-range eggs vs. caged: which is better?
by SHAPE Magazine

8. If the label says "free range or vegetarian fed eggs..."

Who doesn't prefer to think of happy chickens roaming merrily through a barnyard getting fed by a singing Snow White? The truth is that factory chickens are kept in very tight quarters and "free range" only means they had access to an open door, not that they ever used it. Also,

"vegetarian fed" is not a good thing. Chickens are natural omnivores and when they are forced to eat a vegetarian diet (often consisting of processed soy) their eggs contain less nutrition.

Avoid it: If you are truly concerned about buying fresh, organic, natural, or free-range eggs, local farmers are your best bet. Look for them at farmer's markets or find one on LocalHarvest.org. Even if the farm isn't certified organic, many small farmers use the highest standards and are happy to have you come check out their farm.
