STEVEN MOSLEY'S DRAMATIC MINISTRY

This Sabbath, during the worship hour, Steven Mosley will present "Likely Suspects" – a dramatic presentation that takes people through the Bible story – looking back from the "scene of the crime," the cross of Christ.

"It's a mystery story focusing on why Jesus had to die. A hardboiled detective, Sammy Slade, imagines he can solve this 'cold case' once and for all. He throws the spotlight on Likely Suspects—enemies of the Messiah, the biggest villains of Scripture. To get into their heads he must imagine them as real characters in our world. The turf-protecting Philistine becomes Hillbilly Lester, the brutal Assyrian Sennacherib becomes a city street Tough Guy, the stuffy Pharisee becomes British Officer Montague. The presentation reaches a climax when the detective realizes that the likeliest suspect is hidden deep in each one of our hearts. Likely Suspects gives the audience a new appreciation of our need for the gracious forgiveness that comes from the One rejected and despised by humanity."

This is Steven's second visit to Sunnyside and if you were here in 2010, you know you'll want to invite a friend. If this will be your first experience seeing him, we encourage you to bring friends and family this Sabbath to this humorous and deeply moving presentation.

"My passion is to put the Word in the spotlight – to demonstrate that it's as winsome and intriguing as the biggest celebrity out there. I love it when its essential message glows in people's hearts."

I love it when people are moved by the Big Picture that can come together through these 66 biblical books. When folks tell me how much something like 'Chosen Garment' has made Scripture come alive for them – I get a huge this-is-why-I'm-on-this-earth feeling.

I believe the story of the Bible contains the biggest, most redemptive dose of grace humankind has ever, and will ever, experience. So I work hard to shape my 'Whole Bible in One Act' presentations so that this priceless grace of God shines brightly as the climax of the story in various ways. Many of my workshops also focus on how we can make the Word come alive for people..." – Steven Mosley

HEALTHY BYTES

Omega-3 and Omega-6 Oils

It's easy to get mixed up between omega-3 and omega-6; basically, omega-3 acids are the fats which are not so easy to come by. They're in fish oils, flax seeds, kiwi seeds, and chia seeds, amongst other things. Omega-6, on the other hand, is found almost everywhere you look: nuts, vegetable oils, avocados, etc. As important as omega-6 oils are to our health, the balance of omega-3 to omega-6 is equally important. As it is so easy to consume plenty of omega-6, it is very easy to end up with an unbalanced consumption of the two types of oils, which are also known as essential oils. When it comes to the amount of omega-3 oil in various seed oils, the chia seed has the highest content, just above kiwi seeds, perilla and flax. Sprinkle whole chia seeds on your salad. There is no flavor, just a crunch. If you use flaxseed, be sure to grind it first as the whole seed won't break down in the body like the chia seed will. The fish do not produce omega-3 oil, they eat the sea vegetables that have it in it.

THE LAST WORD

God created us for union with Himself: this is the original purpose of our lives. And God is defined as love (1 John 4:16). Living in awareness of our belovedness is the axis around which the Christian life revolves. Being the beloved is our identity, the core of our existence. It is not merely a lofty thought, an aspiring idea, or one name among many. It is the name by which God knows us and the way He relates to us.
