

PASTOR'S NOTES

POSSIBLE CHURCH PURCHASE

As many of you know by now, we have an opportunity to put in a bid for a church building that is for sale. It is located on the southwest corner of Barstow and Maroa. If you'd like to take a look inside the property, the realtor will be there at 5:30pm today to open the facility up for us.

The church board will then have its regularly scheduled meeting at 6:30 this evening and will discuss whether to move forward on the purchase of this church. Let us, as a church family, ask for God's guidance as we consider this property.

PASSING OF LORENE DAGGS

Lorene F. Espinoza Daggs passed away on Monday, at the age of 65. She was a native of Lodi and a resident of Madera for the past 47 years. Although she was a member of the Madera Church, she and her husband, David, frequently attended Sunnyside. Lorene was a graduate of Pacific College and her passion was teaching, with a career spanning 36 years with Madera Unified School District having spent 34 of those years at George Washington Elementary School until her retirement in 2000.

Lorene and David have six children; of them, Norman Espinoza, Darla Vasquez, and David Daggs and their families are members of Sunnyside.

Visitation will be held Sunday, May 17, 2009 from 2:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. at Jay Chapel in Madera.

Graveside service will be Monday, May 18, 2009, 2:00 P.M. at Arbor Vitae Cemetery, in Madera. A reception will follow the service at the Madera church —520 North N Street.

Remembrances should be may be made to: Holbrook Indian School, P.O. Box 910, Holbrook, AZ 86025

“Remember that you are not called to produce successful, upwardly mobile, highly educated, athletically talented machines...Giving your children great opportunities is good; it is not, however, the goal of parenting. Christlikeness is. Above all, seek to raise children who look and act a lot like Jesus.”
